Graduation Speaker

Mary Scott Hunter
Alabama State Board of Education
District VIII

District VIII includes Etowah, Jackson, Madison and portions of Dekalb and Limestone Counties; and the following colleges: J.F. Drake State Community and Technical College; Gadsden State Community College; Northeast Alabama Community College; and the Huntsville Campus of Calhoun Community College.

Mary Scott Hunter grew up on the Alabama Gulf Coast. She graduated Cum Laude from The University of Alabama in 1995 and went on to The University of Alabama School of Law.

After graduating from law school in 1998, Mary Scott was commissioned as a United States Air Force Lieutenant. She served ten years as an Air Force Judge Advocate General (JAG). As a military attorney she first served in the active duty Air Force, then in the Reserves, and finally in the Alabama Air National Guard - attaining the rank of Major. Her assignments included two overseas tours to Korea and Germany and a wartime deployment to the Middle East. Her military awards include Meritorious Service Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Overseas Short Tour Ribbon, and a Small Arms Expert Marksmanship Ribbon.

Mary Scott's husband, Lieutenant Colonel Jon Shultz, is a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy and is now a traditional guardsman with the Alabama Air Guard, where he flies F-16 fighter jets. Lt. Col. Shultz has been twice decorated with the Bronze Star for combat service. He is a Principal Engineer contracted to NASA.

Jon and Mary Scott jointly own a small technology company, Torel Technology, LLC. They have three children, two boys and a girl, ages 9, 6, and 5. The family attends Trinity United Methodist Church where Mary Scott teaches adult Sunday school and serves in Leadership. Jon is a musician.

Mary Scott and Jon brought their family back to Alabama in 2006 after serving out their last active duty Air Force assignment in Germany. Mary Scott was in private practice law for five years with the Elder Law Firm and then with Siniard, Timberlake, & League. She joined Intuitive Research and Technology Company in 2012, where she advises and leads the company's business interests in Compliance, Ethics, and Risk and assists with Federal Lobbying and Business Development. In November 2009, Mary Scott announced her candidacy for the Alabama State Board of Education, and in November 2010, was elected to the position.

Mary Scott's parents are Scott Hunter, former University of Alabama and NFL championship quarterback, and mother, Deborah Hunter of Daphne, Alabama. Mary Scott is a proud product of the Alabama public school system. She has a vested interest in the strength of our education system with her children in public elementary school.

Mary Scott served on the Board of Directors of the Alabama Association of School Boards, served in leadership for the National Association of School Boards, and is a trustee for Athens State University. She has been recognized and awarded honors for her leadership, her economic and workforce development efforts, and for her community service activities. In 2012, Mary Scott sought to raise $40,000 to celebrate her 40th birthday and to celebrate the healthy life of her third child, who was born eight weeks premature in 2007 – she successfully raised $60,000 for the March of Dimes.

Mary Scott is often described as a “servant leader.” Her core values are Integrity, Service, and Excellence.

“I love this state and its citizens. I believe education should prepare students for a good job and that people are fulfilled when they are working at their full potential. The quality of our education foretells our future prosperity. Thank you for the privilege of serving you.”

The Ceremonial Mace

The Ceremonial Mace, representing the authority of the President of the College and the State Board of Education, is carried at the head of the graduation procession. Since the Middle Ages, maces have been regarded as symbols of authority, and their use in academic ceremonies dates back to the founding of institutions of higher learning many centuries ago.

Mr. Glen Young, former cabinetmaking instructor, and his student, Mr. James O'Neal, created the ceremonial mace for Calhoun Community College in 1996. The shaft and head of the mace were turned on a lathe and are solid walnut. A local wood carver, Mr. Robert Lokey, carved the symbols on the head of the mace. Mr. Brad Dean, one of Calhoun's woodworkers, designed and constructed the stand for the mace. Traditionally, the instructor who has the most seniority with Calhoun Community College carries the mace and leads the faculty procession.

This year's mace bearer is Mr. Hoyt Williamson, Horticulture faculty/Division Chair.
